Mr. Dulles

STAT Sunday when Jim Angleton and I discussed a Board case with you, you asked what had happened to [redacted] the young man whom we had to let go because of his wife's parents' one-time affiliation with the Communist Party. I was advised by Gordon Stewart that he is now employed by the [redacted]

STAT [redacted] of Personnel worked very closely with [redacted] as to what types of employment he should seek, i.e., security sales, insurance, etc, however, had not actually directed him to this particular company and could not claim this score.
